NEW YORK, March 16, 2020 /PRNewswire/ -- Greenstein & Milbauer, LLP, a law firm based in New York City, has filed a lawsuit in Queens County Supreme Court (400012/2020), alleging that from approximately 1986 through 1992 Plaintiff, then a minor, was repeatedly sexually abused by Edward Levine while in his foster care. The lawsuit alleges that throughout the period in which the abuse occurred, Defendant Jewish Child Care Association Of New York was negligent in that it negligently employed and retained agents, servants, employees and/or foster parents, including but not limited to, Edward Levine, who sexually abused minors, including, but not limited to the Plaintiff and gave him access to children. In addition to being abused by Defendants' employees, foster parents and/or agents, this lawsuit arises out of Plaintiff's significant damages from that sexual abuse.

This lawsuit was filed under New York's Child Victims Act which allows innocent victims of child sexual abuse, like this child, the opportunity to seek compensation and hold their perpetrators accountable. Prior to the enactment of the Child Victims Act last year, the statute of limitations would have already expired for this child sexual abuse victim. Greenstein & Milbauer, LLP has filed a lawsuit against Jewish Child Care Association on behalf of this adult survivor of child sexual abuse.
